The State Fair

ance for the whole year.

THE weather yesterday was exceedingly tement, a cold, disagreeable, drizzling , falling with but little intermission oughout the day. Owing to this cirastance, the number of persons present a not as large as could have been ded, nor all the classes of stock as full as y would otherwise have been. Nothstanding the inauspicious nature of elements, however, we were glad to a goodly number of the stock-raisers of ldle Tennessee on hand with specimens attle and horses which would do credo any country. There was much inest manifested by those present, in the nibition. The first day of this Fair was ch more successful than that of previexhibitions. With fair weather, it is dent that this exhibition will eclipse that has ever been held in this State. below we give the entries made yester-, and the premiums awarded :

THEATRE. To night Shakspeare's great Tragedy of "Macbeth" will be produced at the Gaiety. Mr. MURDOCH, appears as Macbeth, Mr. Davis as McDuff, and Mrs. CRISP as Lady Mucbeth. With such a cast as this of the leading parts, the public have a right to expect an almost perfect representation of the piece. The Macheth of Mr. MURDOCH, like nearly every part in which he appears, is hin the city, QUARTERLY. To carry this an achievement of which his admirers may justly be proud. It is a most thrilling personation of one of the most startling of the creations of the majestic old bard. The per-
